

W Mumbai India

Located in bustling south-central Mumbai, where modern architecture coexists with colonial cultural monuments, W Mumbai will debut as the brand's first property in India.

Flagged under a management contract with Jaguar Buildcon Pte Ltd, the 350-room W Mumbai is expected to open by 2015.

Overlooking the Mahalaxmi racecourse, the hotel will form a part of Namaste Tower, a 55-storey, mixed-use building designed by WS Atkins to look like clasped hands.

"We are excited to bring the W lifestyle to Mumbai – another step in W's global expansion into the world's most exciting and vibrant destinations," says Frits van Paasschen, president and CEO of Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide Inc.

"W Mumbai will offer a contemporary take on design, fashion and music in the heart of one of the city's most vibrant districts, bringing an innovative and distinctive experience to Mumbai. When W Mumbai opens, Starwood will have seven of its nine brands present in India."

It is the first of what Starwood hopes will be many W properties in India. "With the construction of our first W Hotel in India, we expect to see more owner interest in developing this great brand in other key leisure and business destinations in the country," says Dilip Puri, Starwood's managing director for India. "Locations such as the Delhi NCR region, Goa and Kerala are targets for Starwood to develop W Hotels and Retreats."

The luxury hotel will be in Knightsbridge and is the third hotel project of Bulgari Hotels & Resorts, following the openings in Milan in 2004 and Bali two years later.
