

1

1 Barneby Gates

Wiltshire-based wallpaper company Barneby Gates will present new designs, including Horse Trellis, at this year's show. Founded by former Vogue living editor Vanessa Barneby, the company specialises in quirky yet quintessentially British papers. www.barnebygates.com

2 Le Deun Luminaires Paraled is a floor lamp that incorporates 376 warm white LEDs to provide direct and indirect lighting. The Paris-based company can also make the piece to custom measurements. www.ledeun.com

3 LaLou The Tripod lamp is an elegant example of the bespoke lighting service offered by LaLou. The lamps are hand crafted from carefully sourced antiques, classic lights or rare objects and combined with custom-made shades and fittings. www.la-lou.com

4 McKinney & Co The sophisticated range of finials being launched at Decorex features a diverse combination of materials and finishes. These designs use wood, Perspex and polished nickel, shown here in ebony-stained and brass finishes. www.mckinney.co.uk

5 Limestone Gallery The elegant Trio bathtub comes in three pieces to aid transportation and installation. Once in place, the marble or limestone sections are joined using a silicone sealant. Shown here in pietra zen limestone. www.limestonegallery.com

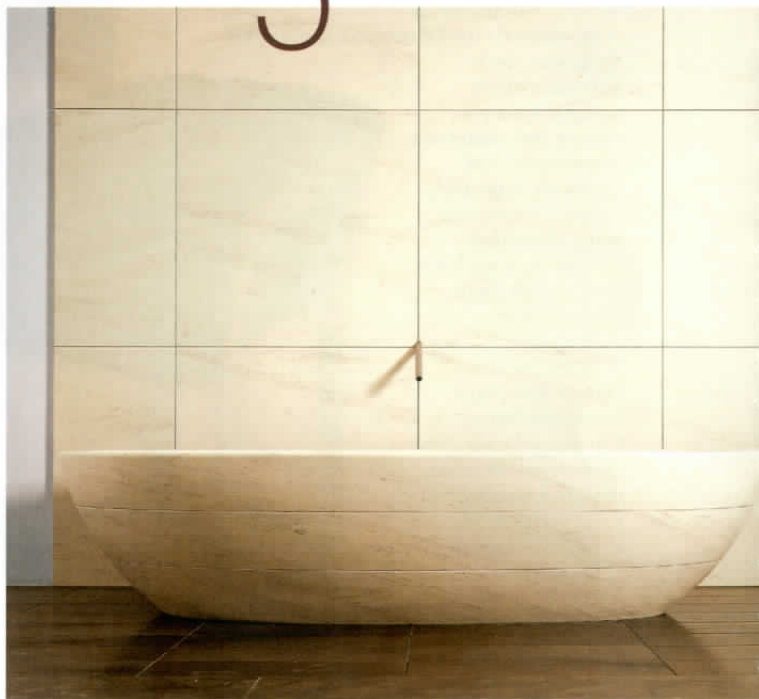

3

2

5

4

6

6 Julian Chichester The sinuous contours of the Curvy console give it an organic, sculptural quality. The scalloped edge and tapered legs reference 19th-century styles and the piece is treated with an antique oak finish. www.julianchichester.co.uk

7

7 Gideon Hatch Murro is a hand-knotted rug made from 100 per cent hand-spun local wool, dyed in natural colours. It is available in various stock colour combinations and sizes or tailored to order. www.gideonhatch.co.uk

8 Veedon Fleece Based on a pattern designed by Wendy Bray in 1951, the Happy Blondes carpet is a playful nod to 1950s style. The carpet retains the quirky character of the original design but has been given new proportions. www.veedonfleece.com

9 Stuart Scott The Tenno occasional table is part of the debut furniture collection from experienced interior designer Stuart Scott. The table can be ordered in various lacquer colours and timbers and the company also offers a bespoke design service. www.stuartscott.co.uk

10 William Yeoward The delicate bronze filigree of the Fiola centre table is inspired by Arabic architecture. Fiola is part of a 10-piece collection of bronze furniture that includes mirrors, consoles and various tables. www.williamyeoward.com

Decorex

This must-see show for the interior design industry showcases a diverse range of companies with endless inspirational products and services on offer. Here we select our favourite pieces from the upcoming event

Words JENNY BREWER and ALYN GRIFFITHS

8

9

10

Whistler Leather is chosen by leading interior designers and architects. Our carefully considered product range of over 400 leathers is a first choice for the worldwide design market.

Below: Whistler Leather - Verbier collection - on seating at Jamie Oliver & Adam Perry Lang's Barbecoa restaurant in London.

Whistler Leather

OUR NEW APP

Imagine, browse, choose

Access our full range of colours, textures and finishes and request samples instantly with our new Whistler Leather iPhone app. Colour match our leathers by simply taking a photograph and email us for details on our custom service. The app is free and will be available at the iTunes app store.

Whistler Leather is exhibiting at Decorex 2011 - showcasing our app and full leather collection. Stand D146

Decorex International
Love Design
25-28th September 2011
Royal Hospital Chelsea, London

www.whistlerleather.com / Tel: 0208 576 6633 / info@whistlerleather.com

11 Biden Designs The Bamboo Collection of gilded washi wallpaper features botanical patterns incorporating subtle metallic shades. The company sources premium interior products — including wallpaper, screens, furniture and lighting — from Japan. www.bidendesigns.com

12 Baroncelli Working with interior designer Kamini Ezralow, Murano glass specialist Baroncelli will create a dark and dramatic space at the show, lit by large sculptural lighting pieces that demonstrate its bespoke design capabilities. www.baroncellidesign.com

13 Bolier & Company The Metal cocktail table from the Bolier Classics range is being presented for the first time in the UK. Designed by Richard Mishaan, the simple style and classic proportions reflect the company's dedication to fine materials and craftsmanship. www.bolierco.com

14 Dominic Schuster A new 'coral' finish is being added to the company's range of antique mirror glass, which can be made to order to meet various commercial or domestic needs. A range of coloured glass mirrors inspired by 1920s and 1950s glamour will also make its debut at Decorex. www.dominic-schuster.com

15 Parable The Wallpaper collection of handcrafted candles and lamps is based on more than 1,800 vintage wallpaper designs. The lighting products feature a 3D relief that highlights the intricate detail of the company's historic wallpaper printing rollers. www.parabledesigns.co.uk

16 Decorus This shelving unit is a new addition to the Decorus Bespoke collection. Presented in a bronze finish with marble and bronze mirror shelves, the materials and finishes can be altered to meet specific requirements. www.decorusfurniture.co.uk

13

14

16

15